A panel of experts! Young people with additional needs are here to give insight into what life is like for them!

Young people share with professionals what life is like for them and how they experience their additional need/disability. They will share what works and what doesn't work when professionals work with them as well as some 'top tips'. There will be an opportunity for professionals to ask the experts some questions. Details of event will be updated ASAP - please keep checking back.

1:30pm - 2.30pm
